

Roll No.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Total No. of Pages : 01

Total No. of Questions : 09

M.Architecture (2013 & Onwards) (Sem.-I)

RESEARCH METHODOLOGIES

Subject Code : MACH-105

M.Code : 71586

Time : 3 Hrs.

Max. Marks : 50

INSTRUCTION TO CANDIDATES :

Q.No.1 is COMPULSORY.

Attempt any TWO questions from UNIT-I and any TWO from UNIT-II. Each question carries 10 marks.

1. How the analysis is to be done using Grounded Theory in social housing research project?

UNIT-I

2. What is the relationship between Architectural Design and Research? How one leads to another?
3. What are various Surveys to be done while analyzing housing projects?
4. Explain various methods for data collection, compilation, classification and analysis used in study of Historical buildings in Indian Cities.
5. What are the basic parameters for designing questionnaire for collection of data in Physical Survey?

UNIT-II

6. What are the various techniques for data Analysis used in projects related to Landscaping?
7. What is importance of statistics in data analyzing and interpreting?
8. What is importance of softwares in statistical in data analyzing and interpreting?
9. Write parameters of technical report writing in Building Construction.

NOTE : Disclosure of Identity by writing Mobile No. or Making of passing request on any page of Answer Sheet will lead to UMC against the Student.